Championships - A Not-To-Be-Missed Event

By Julia Peterson

This year's ESDCTA Championships were a resounding success. The show grounds at the Horse Park of New Jersey looked gorgeous, and the setting was graced with picture-perfect weather.

For the first time, the ESDCTA combined the Dressage and Eventing Championships into one show. According to Beth Ann Adams, the show's Secretary (and ESDCTA Recording Secretary), "... combining the two events added new things for spectators to see and gave both show committees a chance to observe and learn from each other." From the perspective of a spectator and competitor, I couldn't agree more. I enjoyed the presence of the eventers; seeing them navigating the courses enhanced the atmosphere. As we shared the same space and had occasion to "rub elbows" I sensed a spirit of mutual support, common purpose, and camaraderie among all the participants. No matter what level we were riding at, the Championships represented an achievement, a culmination of efforts for the

Thanks to the hard work of the show's organizers and all of the others involved (including sponsors and vendors); everything ran smoothly. In particular, the volunteers not only worked hard, but contributed to the positive and supportive environment of the show. Without their help, the event could not have been the success that it was. Stacey Kimmel-Smith was one of those volunteers. "I was at the ESDCTA championships as a volunteer scorer. Scoring may sound dull but at the Horse Park it's far from it. During the 'downtime' you have a great view of the action and folks to chat with. There was such a diversity of horses in the competition - several paints with unusual markings, a friesian-draft cross, a number of ponies - all performing beautifully. It was fun and inspiring."

Indeed there was much to see at the show, and many levels of riding to observe. There was activity in every ring and throughout the grounds. I enjoyed watching everything, from the riders preparing in the warm-up ring to the beautiful musical freestyles.

Dressage Seat Equitation was a new class for me to compete in, and it was both fun and informative. The class featured general remarks from the judge (including some new USDF directives), as well as individual feedback for each rider.

As a fairly new ESDCTA member, this was my first time attending and competing in the Dressage Championship Show. I wasn't alone in that respect. There were a record number of "newbies" (competitors riding for the first time at Championships) this year. The 2012 Championships also had a record number of youths competing.

I hope that some of this year's new Championship Show competitors will not only participate in the show next year, but also discover additional opportunities for involvement with ESDCTA.

The chance to qualify for and compete in the Championship is just one of the many benefits of ESDCTA membership. Among the numerous ESDCTA events are several educational activities, including the ESDCTA-sponsored clinics, seminars, and webinars. As an educator (college professor) I'm drawn to ESDCTA because of all of the learning opportunities it offers. We're in a region rich with equestrian knowledge and talent, and ESDCTA is a great conduit to access that.

One way that ESDCTA fulfills its educational mission is through the Educational Grants program. As the new Chair of the Educational Grants Committee I'm proud to be part of this process and encourage members to learn more about these grants and consider applying for one. Here's to your participation in 2013!

Meredith Rogers and FWF Prince Rajah.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

We've had so much activity in our club lately, I am wowed. There are times I look around the board meeting and think, "How did we manage all of this?"

Well, with YOUR help.

We are all volunteers. We give of our time and our skills to create programs, shows, clinics, you name it. It is exhausting. At the end of a show, we do go home tired. At the end of the evening at Skylands for an educational seminar, we are drained from the long day and having to keep our brains functioning to absorb all of the good information.

Meeting after meeting after meeting after meeting. I look at the committee members who come to the board meetings and know this long and sometimes frustrating two hours is just one of the many meetings they have agreed to attend in order to keep our club exciting and new, let alone simply functioning.

Our membership is growing and we have almost reached 800 members! This must be from the efforts of these volunteers, I think. This must be because our volunteers keep on coming and, in some instances, for not just one job but for many.

Recently, the USDF asked all the GMOS to submit nominees for their region's Volunteer of the Year. Our board nominated Gary Maholic. He did not win.

For those of you who don't know, Gary is one of those people who wears many hats, who keeps on coming back for more, who rarely says no and if we are in a bind, is right there to

What's great about Gary is not just that he rolls up his sleeves and is the Eventing Chair and the Finance Chair and the keeper of our bylaws and the sounding board for many a president and chairperson. What makes him the best kind of volunteer is very simple. He is nice. Nice, you ask? That's all? Nice? Yes, nice.

Nice is an asset. Nice is a skill set. Nice is something that a volunteer doesn't have to be. It's a choice to volunteer, you do not have to answer to your boss or worry about a paycheck. Volunteers could have the attitude that others should be grateful for the work they do, no matter how they do it.

Not Gary. He is just plain nice. No matter what task he is doing or with whom he is doing it, he is nice.

In this election year when we have heard so much about partisan fighting, I have to say that the board knows firsthand how a controversial issue can set off the fireworks and allegiances among people. But there is always that one voice that stays true to the middle, the compromise, the consensus. And that is Gary. Gary cares about the club, not about being right, not about his ego.

Gary Maholic, you are OUR Volunteer of EVERY Year. You are the reason all of us keep coming back to volunteer because you make us see the light, the reason, the true meaning behind all of our hard work and answer the question of why we should keep on volunteering. You make being involved

We thank you and we salute you!

"It's not true that nice guys finish last. Nice guys are winners before the game even starts."

FOALIN' AROUNDYouth News, Activities, and Opportunities

It's difficult to believe that our 2011-2012 membership/competition year is over! While keeping our long established offerings, the Youth Committee was able to build on to the offerings from 2010-2011.

We developed a Youth Educational Award Program to recognize youth who expand their knowledge by participating in unmounted and mounted activities. We sponsored more riders for our dressage and eventing teams. All of the teams were very successful and had a great time competing together – they truly highlighted the quality of the young equestrians in our community. We organized our first Youth Educational Seminar in February, held at Mid-Atlantic Equine with speakers Dr. Patty Doyle (lameness) and Dr. Rachael Shuster (dentistry). We offered Pilates workshops in Central New Jersey with Sharon Spaziani and in Northern New Jersey with Mary Jane Colletta. And, thanks to the NJ Region Pony Club, we were able to have ESDCTA youth attend "The Pasture Management Walk and Hoof Dissection" as well as the wonderful "WOW Camp" co-hosted by USEA Area 2 and the NJ Region Pony Club at the New Jersey Horse Park.

In an effort to keep a closer pulse on the needs of our youth, we have recently expanded our committee to include a youth representative for both dressage and eventing. Becky Kuc will be our representative for dressage and Christy Pellegrino will be our representative for eventing.

It was a very exciting year for us! Each opportunity we offered was well attended and met with great enthusiasm. This enthusiasm has encouraged the Youth Committee to work to bring even more educational opportunities to the plate for next year.

Although it is difficult to believe how fast this season has gone and how much we have been able to accomplish, we are looking forward to offering more to our youth membership in the coming season. If you have any ideas, please contact ANY of the Youth Committee members!

Sincerely, 2012 Youth Committee:

Cindy Croesner, Debbie DelGiorno, Michele Hauser, Jill Kuc, Heidi Lemack-Beck, Trisha Lufty

Two Scholarship Opportunities

New Jersey residents who are entering their senior year in high school this fall and are planning a career in agriculture or science may apply for the New Jersey Agricultural Achievement Award. The New Jersey Agricultural Achievement Award, sponsored by Amy Butewicz, a former New Jersey Equestrian of the Year, was started because of her desire to give back to the community. Worth $500, this scholarship is meant to assist its recipient in beginning their future in agriculture. The qualifications for receiving this award and the application can be found at: www.jerseyequine.nj.gov/agachievementapplform.pdf.

If you have any questions contact Debra Moscatiello at 609-984-4389.

In addition, the New Jersey Equine Advisory Board has announced a $1,000 scholarship to help 4-H and FFA members pursue their equine activities. Members of organizations represented on the New Jersey Equine Advisory Board are also eligible. Applicants must be between the ages of 13 and 16 and reside in the State of New Jersey. Named the Sara Dubinin Scholarship, in memory of Sara Dubinin, who loved horses, it will be presented at the New Jersey Bred Equine Breeder Awards Luncheon on January 27, 2013, At Charley's Other Brother Restaurant in Eastampton. Sara, a Sayreville resident, graduated from Cardinal McCarrick High School in South Amboy in 2006. The 19-year-old was attending Middlesex County College when she succumbed to injuries suffered in a motor vehicle accident in September of 2007. Those interested in receiving the scholarship must submit an application form including an essay on, "How horses have affected my life and how horses figure into my future." The application can be found at www.jerseyequine.nj.gov/dubininapplicationform.pdf. Consideration of applications will be weighted upon the candidate's financial need. The deadline to submit the essay is January 2, 2013. It can be submitted to Debra Moscatiello at (609) 984-4389 or debra.moscatiello@ag.state.nj.us.

Eventing News

Eventing is on the rise for ESDCTA!

This year was a great year for ESDCTA eventing. We had four Cross Country Schoolings, the eventing championships, and just recently, the NJ Horse Trials. We had a great turnout for all of the above, and great support from the club. Our eventing committee, which plans out the club's activities, is a great launching point for our eventing members, and we would love to have our eventing members join us at our meetings, as they are open to all members, and we value your opinions. Also, if you have questions about what we do and why we've done something the way we did, we welcome your questions.

This year, we moved the NJ Horse Trials to its new date (the first weekend in October), to be earlier in the season, have better weather, and to have more daylight available. We're already planning for next year by applying for Area and Adult Team championships for 2013. But there's still more to do this year. The last eventing committee project for 2012 is the Turkey Trot (Sunday, November 18), our joint fundraiser with the Horse Park of NJ to benefit their cross-country course. We need volunteers to help us out with this. As with any ESDCTA function, volunteers get lunch, ESDCTA volunteer bucks, and $20 gas money as per our volunteer program rules. So if you can help, please contact Gary Maholic at Gary@esdcta.org. And thanks to all of you who helped this year!

Heads up all show organizers and competitors, There are four new USDF and USEF tests approved for the 2013 competition year

There are four new tests now available for you to add to your prize lists for the upcoming competition year.

USDF has added a Training Level Freestyle test for you to add to your musical freestyle (MFS) class offerings. The test is available at www.usdf.org along with all of the other USDF freestyle tests, and has the same qualifying criteria of all MFS classes.

As of Sept 24, 2012, the USEF has approved three Rider Tests: one test each at Training, First, and Second Levels.

The USEF explanation of the tests is as follows: Issued by the USEF Dressage Department 24 September 2012

New 'Rider Tests' to Become Effective December 1, 2012 (2013 Competition Year)

The United States Equestrian Federation (USEF) is pleased to announce the new Dressage Rider Tests Program for the 2013 competition year. Designed and drafted by a joint working group from the USEF Dressage Committee joined and by appointees from the United States Dressage Federation (USDF), these tests are available for use by riders at Training, First, and Seconds Levels. While these tests nor their subsequent scores are a requirement to progress through the levels, they are intended to help riders measure their progress.

The new tests are designed to evaluate the proficiency of the rider relative to the requirements of the given level, without giving extra credit for the horse's gaits, impulsion and submission. Riders will receive constructive evaluations that they can put to use in improving their abilities as a rider. The principles of correct application of the aids, correct riding biomechanics and the accurate geometry of the figures are accessed through 5 scores evaluating rider's position, correct and effective use of aids, horse's response and performance, accuracy of the exercises and harmony between rider and horse plus written commentary.

USEF Training Level Rider Test

The purpose of the rider test at Training Level is to ensure that the rider has mastered the fundamentals of riding. The test states its purpose as to confirm that the rider sits in the correct posture and alignment and shows correct mechanics in walk, rising trot and canter. The seat is sufficiently independent for the rider to maintain a steady, elastic rein contact and encourage the horse to stretch into that contact. The horse is ridden actively forward showing impulsion and balance required for the level, bends equally to the left and right sides on turns and circles, and makes smooth, willing transitions.

USEF First Level Rider Test

In the First Level test riders are asked to continue to demonstrate the requirements of the Training Level in addition to showing increased balance and effectiveness of aids while performing more intricate movements. The test states its purpose as to confirm that the rider, in addition to the requirements of training level, shows correct alignment, posture and mechanics in sitting trot, including maintaining a steady, elastic rein contact. In turns on forehand and leg yields the rider remains centered and the horse responds willingly to the aids. The transitions are ridden in a better balance and with more throughness than at training level. In response to the correct application of the rider's aids, the horse moves actively forward showing a consistent tempo and correct rhythm in each gait, shows appropriate bending, lengthens and shortens the stride in trot and responds willingly to both longitudinal and lateral aids.

USEF Second Level Rider Test

The aim of the rider test at Second Level is that the rider can demonstrate consistency in all gaits and lateral work while showing enhanced skill from First Level. The test states its purpose as to confirm that the rider, having achieved the requirements of first level, is able to ride the horse reliably on the bit with an uphill tendency. The rider lengthens and shortens the horse's stride in trot and canter while maintaining correct alignment, posture and mechanics. In lateral movements the rider stays centered and demonstrates an appropriate angle and bending of the horse. As a result of the correct application of the rider's aids, the horse shows a greater degree of straightness, bending, suppleness, throughness, balance and self-carriage than at first level.

The rider tests are available on the USEF website.

SALUTE...

By: Rebecca Kuc

Alexia Di Ciurcio is a freshman at Moorestown High School in Moorestown, NJ. She has been riding since she was seven years old and has always ridden dressage. She rides at Moonglow Stables, her aunt's barn, and she trains with both her Aunt Angela and Sabrina Shawlis. Alexia has primarily been competing the past two seasons; however, she showed her old pony a few times in the past.

Currently, Alexia rides and competes two horses. Fancy Delray is a chestnut Westfalian mare. The pair has shown through Second Level together and Fancy Delray is also a very talented jumper. At some point, Alexia plans on taking some jumping lessons on her. Her other horse, Sundance, is a chestnut Dutch Warmblood gelding. He is a giant "golden retriever" and loves attention. He also loves watermelon and drinking from a soda can!

This past season, Alexia rode Sundance on ESDCTA's Region 1 Youth Mix Team in Leesburg, VA. The pair was second in their warm-up class, won their equitation class, and was on ESDCTA's Third Place team for their division. This was Alexia's first year on the Youth Team and she found it a lot of fun and a great experience for young riders. Since she rides at a family owned farm, she doesn't get to ride with others, so the Team setting was both challenging and fun. She enjoyed seeing so many other kids riding dressage and she loved having a common goal with her team members. Some of her favorite moments were decorating the stalls with a candy theme and dining out with the team. Alexia's favorite thing to do with horses is just to have a good ride and be able to trail ride as a way to let them know they were good. She also loves the challenge of the movements and the possibility of moving through all of the levels in dressage. She would love to be at a comfort level to show USEF rated shows this coming season and eventually ride at Grand Prix. She also hopes to be able to ride on a college dressage team.

Even though she's only shown a few years, Alexia already has many accomplishments under her belt. In 2011, she was Champion at First Level Junior for ECRDA and also received her ECRDA and ESDCTA Bronze Medals. In 2012, she was Champion Second Level for ECRDA and also has all of her scores for her Silver Medals in both ESDCTA and ECRDA. This year she qualified for the CBLM Championships and GAIG Championships, and she has also already finished all her requirements for her First-Star with the USEF High School Equestrian Athlete Program!

Alexia would like to mention the "riders behind the scenes". There are two wonderful people in her life who go to every single competition with her: her Aunt Angela and Judy Becker (her horse show grandma). Both ladies have spent tremendous amounts of energy and time into helping Alexia improve. Not having parents in the horse world, Alexia's aunt really steps up and does everything she can. She is the sole reason Alexia started riding. From helping set up lessons, to training, to trailering to every show, she has spent countless hours helping. Both Judy and Angela have never asked for anything in return or anything for their hard work. Alexia states, "The success of a rider isn't just the person on the horse, but also the people on the ground supporting and constantly helping the horse and rider!"

An Amateur's Journey: My Horse for a Kingdom

By Meredith Rogers

This is the first in a series about being an amateur dressage rider and member of ESDCTA. Hopefully you will be able to relate, and if you have any stories of your own, we would love to hear from you.

I don't know many amateurs who own more than one horse. I know they are out there, but I'm not one of them. Having a horse in the NJ/NY/PA area is not cheap. There's board, feeding, training, and vet and farrier bills, all which seems more expensive here than in other areas of the country. Add on top of that, shows, clinics, and events, and it pushes the limit of just about every budget. Plus there's the guilt for spending money on "a hobby" instead of a family vacation or a new car, and it can get to be too much. But then we go out to the barn and breath in the scent of fresh hay and see the deep eyes of our equine companions, to know that all of the sacrifice is worth it.

Sometimes I think about how big of a house I could live in if I didn't have my horse, or maybe I could take that vacation to Paris. Better yet, I wouldn't have to work so hard and could have some free time. But then what would I do with that free time? Boring!!!!

So how can we make it more affordable to ride in the Northeast? Many amateurs forgo a lot. That new car waits; those pretty red shoes won't be leaving the store; and forget about getting an iPad. Others take on a second job or part-time work. We trailer friends for gas money or volunteer to braid in exchange for lessons. And then of course, there's curtailing our competitive plans. Schooling shows and events replace recognized shows and hunter trials, and maybe we only go to one clinic a year instead of two, if any.

Deciding where to cut corners is usually easier than convincing our families that there is value to our horses. For example, they keep us sane, so we can deal with the crises of a teenager. Because when we ride we need to be present in the moment, it helps us to put in perspective a busted toaster. They motivate us to always improve, so meeting a work challenge is no problem. Horses help us be better humans, and how can you put a price on that?

We all make sacrifices to fit horses into our lives. But the bottom line is that it's all worth it.

The 14th Annual

Turkey Trotl Sunday November 18, 2012

AT THE

Horse Park of New Jersey

This fall "ride" and "drive" is similar to a hunter pace, but it's done at a slower, "pleasure" pace. It's a fun wind down to finish the season with a great hack through the Assunpink Wildlife Preserve which is adjacent to the Horse Park.

There are many divisions to choose from for the riders; Senior, Junior, Family, and Open (rider divisions). The course is ridden in pairs (drivers can drive pairs, but only one award per carriage). The team in each division that comes closest to the "mystery" pace, gets a prize and there are ribbons through 8th place.

It's also a great volunteer opportunity for those that need more hours! We look forward to seeing you there!
